Awards Nomination Form

Members are invited to submit nominations for these special recognition and service awards throughout the year. To nominate yourself or another individual for one of the awards, please fill out the form below and click 'Submit by Email' or print the form and return it to Governance, NACAC, 1050 N. Highland Street, Arlington, VA 22201 or Fax: 703-373-2395 or 703-243-9375. The relevant committees will review nominations and make recommendations to the NACAC Board of Directors each spring.

Gayle C. Wilson Service to Education Award: Established in 1973, this award was named for a fine and outstanding leader who devoted his life to counseling and assisting students in attaining their educational goals. The Wilson Award is presented to a NACAC member who, over a period of years, has performed outstanding service to our profession.

Margaret E. Addis Service to NACAC Award: Established in 1996, this award honors a long-time, respected leader of NACAC who never faltered in her commitment to ensuring ethical practices. The Addis Award recognizes a NACAC member who has provided the association with unique and outstanding service.

Excellence in Education Award: Established in 1983, this award is presented to an individual - member or non-member - who has improved the field of education and/or the way students are served.

Government Relations Award: Established in 2001, this award is presented to a NACAC member who has made outstanding efforts in support of policy initiatives that promote equal access to higher education, encourage student achievement and promote counselor excellence, and further the government relations priorities of NACAC members.

Inclusion, Access and Success (formerly Human Relations) Award: Established in 1984, this award honors persons who have been instrumental in making postsecondary education opportunities available to historically underrepresented students.
