

International ACAC

Overview

States/Regions represented:	International (all regions outside the United States)
Affiliate Size:	4,100 members
Current Strategic Plan:	International ACAC Strategic Plan
Bylaws:	International ACAC Bylaws
Membership Structure:	Membership in International ACAC is open to institutions, organizations and individuals who are engaged in work related to assisting students in the transition from secondary schools to post-secondary studies. Each person must maintain their own membership in International ACAC, joining the member group that represents one's professional role.
Executive Board/Officers:	International ACAC Executive Board
Website:	https://www.internationalacac.org/
General point of contact:	Erin Garcia, Executive Director. Egarcia@internationalacac.org
Mission statement:	Vision statement:	Key Programs:
To facilitate global interaction among counselors and institutions in support of secondary students transitioning to higher education, while promoting professional standards that foster ethical and social responsibility.	We, International ACAC, undertake to be open and accountable with all policies, procedures, decisions and actions. The Board, committees, subcommittees, and workgroups will: Be in alignment with the organization's mission, ethical statement (NACAC's Guide to Ethical Practice in College Admission), and in support of its integrity; be student-centered, fostering opportunities to be successful in navigating their journey to higher education; be responsive to the membership and those who share in the organization's mission; be inclusive and mindful of its constituents' international voice; and be conducted in a spirit of collaborative knowledge-sharing.	Mentor Year Program (MYP) Annual Conference Regional Institutes