Purpose:

The Iowa Association for College Admission Counseling (Iowa ACAC) is organized under the laws of the State of Iowa for the following purposes:

- To establish and maintain high professional standards in post-secondary admissions guidance at secondary schools, two-and four-year colleges, universities, other postsecondary educational institutions, and related educational organizations and agencies.
- To develop and expand relationships between secondary schools, two- and four-year colleges, universities, other postsecondary educational institutions, and related educational organizations and agencies.
- To assist in the development of effective programs of counseling and guidance, which aid students in selecting suitable two-or four-year college, universities or other postsecondary educational institutions.
- To develop the professional competency, and meet the professional needs of, individuals involved in admission procedures.
- To serve students, parents, secondary schools, postsecondary educational institutions, and related educational organizations and agencies by considering the whole range of influences on a student's transition from secondary school to further education, without regard to race, creed, gender, political affiliation, national origin, or disability.
- To adhere to and support the purposes, goals, and objectives of the National Association for College Admission Counseling.
