

National Association for College Admission Counseling
Board of Directors

Board of Directors Code of Conduct

1. I will commit to the advancement of NACAC's mission and champion its core values for all we serve.
2. I will accept my responsibility to listen to and represent the diverse viewpoints of the entire NACAC community.
3. I will recognize, celebrate, practice, and uplift diversity and inclusion in NACAC's membership and programs, and as a lived value in our greater society.
4. I will avoid any conflict of interest, perceived or real, and will not use my role as a board member for personal gain.
5. I will not engage in activities that might compromise or harm the association, board, or members and will respect confidentiality.
6. I will abide by majority decisions of the board and agree to the principle the board speaks with one voice.
7. I will engage civilly and contribute to honest and respectful dialogue even in challenging or difficult conversations.
8. I will prepare for, attend, and actively participate in NACAC board meetings.
9. I will remain connected to and knowledgeable about local, state, national, and global issues, as well as those experienced by NACAC's affiliates.
10. I will not bring my personal agenda or that of outside interests to bear in my service to the entire NACAC community. I commit to making the best decisions for the association.
11. I will commit to a positive working relationship with the NACAC CEO and staff.
12. I will encourage the board's pursuit of governance best practices and strategic direction that serves to advance the college admission counseling profession for all.
