

Overview

States/Regions represented:	New York
Affiliate Size:	2,000 members
Current Strategic Plan:	New York State ACAC Strategic Plan
Bylaws:	NYSACAC Bylaws
Membership Structure:	As a member of the NYSACAC, you are a part of a community of professionals from college admissions and enrollment management, public and independent school counselors, community-based organization counselors, independent educational consultants, graduate students, corporate partners, and a dynamic group of retirees.
Executive Board/Officers:	NYSACAC Executive Board
Website:	www.nysacac.org
General point of contact:	Kathleen McArthur, Executive Director. nysacac@nysacac.org
Mission statement: The NYSACAC mission statement outlines our commitment to the professionals and students of New York State. NYSACAC is committed to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Develop and strengthen the professional practices and networks of those who provide the information and counseling.• Promote access, equity, and success in post-secondary education.• Support the professionals who service the students and families in the transition to post-secondary education.• Promote high professional standards	Vision Statement: NYSACAC is at the forefront of providing professional development and leadership opportunities in college admission counseling.	Key Programs: NYSACAC Annual Conference Summer Institute Regional Forums Camp College Coming Together College Fairs