

Overview

States/Regions represented:	CO, UT, NM, AZ, WY
Affiliate Size:	1,000 members
Current Strategic Plan:	RMACAC Strategic Plan
Bylaws:	RMACAC Bylaws
Membership Structure:	Membership runs from July 1 - June 30. Membership fees are not prorated; any payments made for the current membership year apply from the time they are made until the end of that cycle. RMACAC dues are non-refundable and non-transferrable. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Individual and Institutional memberships are available. Institutional memberships are only available for private high schools and public or private colleges and universities.
Executive Board/Officers:	RMACAC Executive Board
Website:	www.rmacac.org
General point of contact:	Julie Kutsner, Executive Assistant. info@rmacac.org
Mission statement: The mission of the Rocky Mountain Association for College Admissions Counseling is to support and advance the work of counselors as they help students realize their full educational potential with particular emphasis on the transition from secondary schools to colleges and universities and with attention to access and equity, including college readiness, for all students.	Purpose of RMACAC: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – To foster and encourage cooperation between collegiate institutions and secondary schools within our Rocky Mountain Region: Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, and Wyoming – To promote and advocate for the rights of students in the college admission process – To develop and promote ethical standards of conduct in the relationships of personnel in both collegiate institutions and secondary schools – To provide an annual forum for college and secondary school personnel to discuss issues and trends and to further their professional development – To represent the interest of the profession to students and their families, allied professionals, the media, the government, and the general public; and collaborate with the state and regional affiliate associations in achieving the goals of the mission statement – To encourage professional cooperation between non-profit organizations, those who are interested and active in all levels of education, and personnel from our Rocky Mountain colleges and secondary schools
Key Programs: Annual Conference College Fairs Student Scholarships	